

CYMROT & COHEN.

October 27th, 1913. Mrs. Orenstein,

ANNIE REGAR. Annie is the sole support of her mother.

She has never been out of a job, because she cannot afford it. However, she is also an efficient worker. She used to make more money on piece work, but says that she is too tired out to do that anymore. "You can only work so long at a rush, and then you get played out".